Designer sarees are totally hi fashion. There is one for each occasion in latest sarees. There are casual styles, fusion blends and more variety in color and drape styles. Draping the sari is about style and attitude. One could bring about more charm in the ethnic style or go for a fusion trend.

Blouse patterns are very important which is seen in bollywood sarees. The traditional katori design is getting replaced with corsets or patterns inspired as a Chinese shirt.

Festival sarees come in geometric patterns, asymmetrical and abstract prints.. For a very different style, one could use the front pleats with hidden designs and also repeat the same on the pallu. Single pallu or neat arrangement is again a personal comfort level. South sarees also come in chiffon and crepes.
